

Approved Minutes
Liberal Arts Council Meeting
October 17, 2006

Present: D. Glassman, M. Aakhus, J. Palladino, K. Waters, M. Kearns, S. Zehr, C. Barber, T. Hunt, W. Rinks, A. Torres and B. Christie
Guests: P. Aakhus and M. Hamington

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 am.

Old Business: The Registrar's Office was contacted and they prefer that cross-listed courses and their prerequisites to identical.

I. No minutes were available for review/approval.

II. New Course Petition (Hamington) PHIL 250 – Study of Religion

Dr. Hamington was present to answer the council's questions. Following discussion, amendments were made to the course title, number and description. The motion was approved as amended.

III. Course Modification/Program Modification (P. Aakhus)

Prof. P. Aakhus informed the council that the proposed changes to INST 101, Introduction to International Studies, and program modifications to the major and minor are the result of suggestions provided during the recent program review of International Studies. Following discussion, the motion to accept the course and program modifications were approved as amended.

A course modification petition for INST 497: Capstone was tabled.

Around the Table

C. Barber – Mary Lynn Stoll will present a paper at the Business Ethics Conference.

M. Kearns – The next guest of the RopeWalk Writers Series will be Amy Fleury who will make her presentation in Kleymeyer Hall on Thursday, October 19th at 7 pm.

K. Waters – Art student Sarah Nellis won the Athena Scholarship for 2006 and was recognized at the Today's Woman Conference at The Center on October 12th.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:25 am.