Reader:	Author:
PEER EDITING DAY ONE (Adapted from Shannon Wooden, USI)
1. Does the essay have a clear thesis? Does it organize the structure of the essay? Write the thesis below. Make any changes that might improve it.
2. What seems to be the overall structure of the essay	? Are there any spots that are confusing?
3. Clean paragraphing is essential. Look for TOPIC the margin where there are none apparent.	SENTENCES and underline them. Make a note in
4. Significance of the event / person / place should at Especially in the conclusion, look for the significance
5. Where is there physical description of the person / below.	place? Write the two best examples in the space
6. Write below passages that reveal the person's charemotion is felt by the reader.	acter of significance of the place. Write places where
7. Where is there relevant conversation?
8. Author's questions:
o. Hamor b questions.

Reader:	Author:
PEER EDITING DAY TWO (Adapted from Shannon Woo
1. Improve two awkward ser	itences.
2. Are there errors in MLA s	tyle, misspellings, typos?
3. Check punctuation of CO	NVERSATION. Is there a new paragraph for each CHANGE OF SPEAKER?
4. Locate references to speci	fic fragrances, colors, sounds.
5. Are there transitions to he	lp the flow and keep the reader / listener aware of the passage of time?
6. Make suggestions for imp	rovement of the conclusion
o. wake suggestions for imp	To venient of the conclusion.
7. Author's questions:
7. Audioi 5 questions.	