ORGSYNC

An online management tool USI students use to manage their co-curricular activities at USI

Discover involvement opportunities Search through student organizations, service events, and other campus programs to find opportunities that match your interests.

Centralize your out-of-classroom involvement
For every origination you join, OrgSync will be able to track your involvement history, including event participation and meeting attendance. Stay up to date on upcoming events.

Showcase your involvement to prospective employers or grad school
It's never to early to start It's never to early to start thinking about your future! OrgSync provides the tools for you to create a co-curricular transcript and a ePortfolio.

Customize how you stay informed
Choose how you are notified about events, news, and other information-- email, OrgSync message, or text message. It's your choice!

Want to know more?

1. Request to have a Student Development Staff member attend your next student organization meeting to show how you can use OrgSync specifically for your student organization and make the most of OrgSync's features
2. Check out our online OrgSync tutorials
3. Attend an upcoming OrgSync workshop
