

Online Advanced Studies in Addiction Science (OASAS)

Offered by the Social Work Department, located within the USI College of Liberal Arts, the 100% Online Advanced Studies in Addiction Science (post-master's certificate in addiction science) provides the latest knowledge and skills in professional addiction treatment practice.

The OASAS certificate is designed for individuals with, or currently working on a master's or doctorate degree in social work, addiction studies, chemical dependency, psychology, human development, family relations, counseling or a related field from accredited universities and programs.

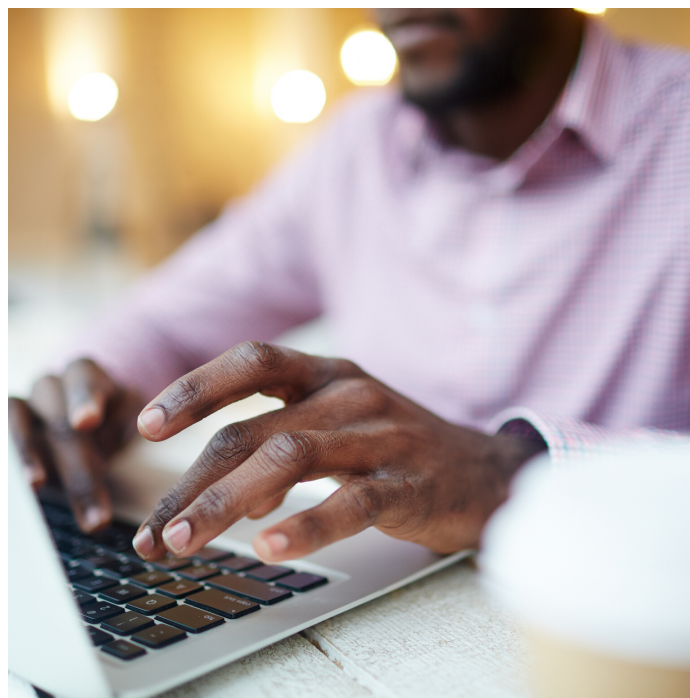

100% ONLINE

PROGRAM DELIVERY

Courses within the OASAS certificate are offered entirely online using a learning management system. You will need access to a reliable computer with internet.

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT FROM THE PROGRAM

A need for highly trained individuals in addiction services is well documented. By enrolling in these courses, students have the opportunity to learn addiction theories and techniques, the basics of psychopharmacology, research methods, crisis intervention tools utilized in assisting addicted individuals and their families, as well as legal, ethical, and professional standards.

OASAS
