THE LANGUAGE OF BUSINESS

From the entertainment industry to nonprofit organizations to government entities, having a bachelor's degree in accounting means you'll be in demand for your knowledge and expertise. Accounting is sometimes called the language of business, and individuals who are fluent in this language are very valuable.

The Romain College of Business' accounting program has attained a reputation for excellence, employing the highest quality faculty and offering a challenging, cutting-edge curriculum. Our vision is to provide you with an exceptional learning experience in accounting and to become the preferred source of professionally trained accountants for regional as well as national employers.
