

Master of Arts in English

Offered by the College of Liberal Arts at USI, the 100% online Master of Arts in English (MAE) is designed for individuals who want to teach dual credit courses in high school classrooms or composition and literature classes in two-year and four-year institutions of higher education.

The program will also benefit professional writers and others whose occupations require excellent reading, writing, and analytical skills.

100% ONLINE

Program Highlights

Upon completion of the MAE program, students should be able to do the following:

- Read, interpret, and write about a diverse range of texts in English.
- Demonstrate a solid grounding in Literature, Rhetoric and Writing, and Creative Writing.
- Conduct independent research.
- Write critically and effectively in specific professional contexts.
- Critically examine and analyze texts critically from a diverse range of perspectives and through the lens of history and theory.
- Participate actively in academic discourse communities in written form, engaging in the theoretical discussions central to the field with current and relevant research-based information.

Program Curriculum & Design

The program is comprised of 33 credit hours of coursework leading to a Master of Arts degree in English. The program includes 12 credit hours in English Core Classes, 18 credit hours in Additional English Classes, and 3 credit hours of a Capstone Project including a research paper and presentation at an end-of-semester Capstone Symposium

CORE CLASSES

ENG 501 – Information Literacy and Research

ENG 512 – Advanced Academic Composition

ENG 644 – Literature: Theory and Pedagogy in Higher Ed

ENG 646 – Composition: Theory and Pedagogy in Higher Ed

Program Delivery

Courses within the MAE are offered entirely online using a learning management system. Access to a reliable computer with internet access is required.

APPLY TODAY!

Visit our website at usi.edu/online-mae to inquire about the program and speak to a program representative.

SCAN ME!

For More Information:

Charles Conaway
Department Director
conaway@usi.edu
812-461-5435

University of Southern Indiana
8600 University Boulevard
Evansville, IN 47712

@USIOneLearning

@University of Southern Indiana Online Learning

The University of Southern Indiana is committed to principles of equal opportunity and affirmative action.