Q: Mealplans are a requirement, why are they so expensive? Can things be adjusted?

A: Students were picking the least expensive mealplan, even though it wasn't what they needed. Since residents halls weren't made to cook, a fourth type of mealplan can be developed with a new type of housing facility.

Q: Can you change mealplans after the start of the semester?

A: There is a fee with changing, our goal is to figure out why students are not using meals. Partnered with _ to better explain mealplans.

Q: Can you drop the fee after the two weeks?

A: Two weeks is not a great time span to see if the plan is right for the student. Mealplans are used to assign staffing.

It can be discouraging to get a mealplan after their freshman year.

Q: Will there be a possibility of changing much money to flex dollars?

A: Potentially, there's no guarantee the money will be going towards dining.

Q: What about munch money spring to munch money fall?

A: Why did it not get used?

Q: Only 3 out of the 13 advertised places to eat are open.

A: We moved simply to go items to red mango

Q: Is there signage near simply to go?

A: Yes

Q: Red mango is always congested, it's not worth while to wait. Is there a way to separate the line? Extend the line?

A: Would grub hub work? - yes

Q: Can we get healthier options for the vending machines?

A: We can do some checking on that.

Q: Chick fil a closes very early, students cannot use meal swaps.

A: We need atleast 50 student workers, 10-12 hours a week. We are offering 300 sign-on bonus and giving a dollar to flex every hour worked.

What is the wage?

$10/hr, everything is negotiable

Advertise that you are flexible.

Q: what is the plan for the spring semester

A: if we get more workers we can extend those hours. The temp agencies we work with are also struggling.

Q: Can we extend the meal swap time?

A: That can hurt the loft. Meal swap starts at 3 on the weekends.

Q: On archies you can order things, but you cannot order salads or sushi. And there is not uniform hours for delivery.

A: The hours are 3-9pm, it should not be turned off.

Q: The mealplans are 3 sides, can we take less?

A: You can take less. We can look back at the structure of the plans.

Q: You get charged for meals on weeks that we are on break.

A:

Q: Instead of meals a week can we do meals a semester?

A: It will throw of how meal plans are designed to use.

The price of the meal plan drives freshman away from the resident halls.

Q: Having a kitchen for the resident halls.

Q: Could we rotate the dining?

A: We offer the Mexican options in the loft.

I will not be going to the loft, I forget that it even exists.

Q: Is there a chance to open anything where steak n shake would have been?

A: We can do a preference survey.
