

Mani Quinn

San Antonio, Texas, 87630 812-464-5000 mrquinn@mail.usi

Education

University of Southern Indiana
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Evansville, IN
December 2021

Certifications

Certified Nursing Assistant
Basic Life Support

Expiring May 2022
Expiring May 2022

Clinical Experience

St. Sophie Hospital

Macy, IN

Critical Care, 220 hours

May 2019-Present

- Administered vasopressors, such as Levphed, to critically ill patients.
- Aided in the preservation of organs for transplant through guidance from the Indiana Organ Procurement Organization.
- Increased knowledge of dialysis process through observation and practice of catheter placement allowing the patient to receive medication quickly and efficiently.
- Recognized the value of teamwork during a code blue by observing ICU nurses communicate.
- Developed therapeutic relationship with newly diagnosed terminally ill patient

Other Rotations – Pediatrics, Oncology/Pulmonology, Mental Health, Geriatric, Cardiovascular, Med- Surgical total 650 hours

- Assisted senior nurses in care of six pediatric patients in pediatric intensive care
- Gained understanding of proper administration of blood and Chemotherapy to patients ranging from 8 to 62 years old.
- Administered arrhythmia and hypertensive medications to patients by matching the medication to the patient's chart to ensure the correct medications were given to each patient.
- Observed a thoracentesis and removal of chest tubes on 15+ patients.

Work Experience

Deaconess Hospital Dietary

January-December 2019

- Led evening crew to ensure dietary updates were being met for each patient.
- Prepared and served balanced meals to patients within the hospital according to their dietary needs.
- Observed any changes in patient reactions to dietary changes and communicated changes to physicians.

Deaconess Hospital Student Externship

Summer 2018

- Improved organizational skills through use of EPIC charts and patient knowledge while caring for up to five patients
- Certified in IV therapy
- Replaced ostomy bag on abnormal stoma to ensure proper cleaning and attachment for patient safety with the Wound, Ostomy, and Continence nurse

Skills

- EPIC EHR
- Sunrise HER
- IV Insertion
- Blood Dosage
- Medication Administration
- Rapid Response Team Training
- Patient Care