

Student Connect

Together Inspiring Educational Success (TIES)

TIES is a student-to-student peer support network that enables students with similar backgrounds (related to medical, psychological or physical) to connect with each other to share common personal experiences, build meaningful connections, and foster mutual empowerment.

We can connect you! Simply make the request, sign a release and we will assist you in making the connection.

Disability
Resources

Disability Resources
812-464-1961

USI.edu/disabilities/